

New Billboard Installed in Mangere

A Billboard has now been installed at the Samoan Catholic Community headquarters in Mangere Manukau. This is one of the ACC Sphere of Influence communities. Spreading all over Auckland region, more than 2000 people gather there for their Sunday services, besides other community functions during the week, that involves families and children.

